Description

This antique East Turkestan dining room carpet is a stunning example of traditional craftsmanship, featuring rich, naturally aged Abrash dyes that lend a beautiful gradient effect across the fabric. The intricate patterns evoke the region's deep history, combining elegance with artisanal detail. Its harmonious color variations create an inviting warmth, perfect for enhancing the atmosphere of any dining space. The rug's texture and design reflect a timeless quality, making it both a functional and highly decorative piece, ideal for those who appreciate classic antiques and the fine art of carpet weaving.
